COMEDY

Benidorm

WEDNESDAY / ITV

NEW It's no mean feat for a mainstream comedy to keep the laughs going over 10 series, but this sunny sitcom has done just that. To celebrate the show's anniversary, stars Sherrie Hewson and John Challis, whose characters Joyce and Monty are set to tie the knot in this week's suitably madcap episode, join us for an exclusive photoshoot... TUESDAY / ITV

NEW I'm intrigued by this series, which sees stars, including June Brown, Claire King and Sherrie Hewson (she's busy!), try bizarre methods to see if they can collectively take 100 years off their ages. Claire tried cow pee shampoo. I'll stick to Wash & Go! See page 20

Shakespeare & Hathaway

NEW This isn't a lavish period drama about Shakespeare and his wife, Anne Hathaway, but a modern-day crime drama, with Mark Benton and Jo Joyner as private investigators... See page 16

This Spring on

The end is NIGH...

Evil Pat Phelan gets his comeuppance

With three murders under his belt – Vinny Ashford, Andy Carver and most recently Luke Britton – along with the rape of Street favourite Anna Windass, Pat Phelan has earned himself the title of Weatherfield's number one villain.

But the law of soap dictates that all baddies must get their comeuppance, and as we head into Spring, Phelan's reign of terror will finally draw to a close.

Corrie bosses don't want to give too much away about how the dastardly builder will depart the cobbles, but there are a few tantalising teasers that we can reveal. Firstly, the gripping denouement will take place away from Weatherfield in an isolated location. Secondly, Phelan's wife, Eileen, will have a hand in his demise – quite literally. And thirdly, the action will revolve around a stunt.

'A character like Pat Phelan was always going to go out with a bang rather than a whimper, and the exit we have in store for him will definitely pack a punch,' promises Corrie producer Kate Oates. 'Between now and then, there'll be plenty of twists and turns, as the pressure mounts and Phelan fears his dark secrets will be uncovered.'

Andy came to a bitter end at the hands of Phelan

“A character like Phelan was always going to go out with a bang”

KATE OATES, PRODUCER

Closing in: Eileen (top) will play a vital role in Phelan's downfall

Dark days for David

The hairdresser will be assaulted by Josh

David Platt seems to have found a firm friend in Josh Tucker. If he hasn't been sparring with him, he's been sinking pints with him – much to Shona's frustration, who's barely had a look-in.

But there's a sinister side to the cobbles newcomer, as David is about to discover. A night out in town will take a disturbing turn when Josh spikes the hairdresser's drink, and then rapes him.

It's the first time that Corrie has tackled the issue of male rape, and writers have been working closely with Survivors Manchester – a charity that supports male survivors of sexual abuse and rape – to ensure that the storyline is told truthfully and sensitively.

Sparring partner: Josh

Sensitive: David's male rape story will be a Corrie first

NEW FACES

Ex-EastEnder Sophie Thompson and Brookside legend Louis Emerick join the cast...

Ghostly presence: Rosemary

Spring is the time for new arrivals, and here are two set to ruffle a few feathers. And if they look familiar, it's because they're no strangers to the world of soap.

Acclaimed actress Sophie Thompson, who played Phil Mitchell's disturbed fiancée Stella Crawford in EastEnders, will guest star as Rosemary, a customer of Audrey who claims that she's not only communicating with the hairdresser's late husband, Alf, but she also has a message for Gail from her dead husbands. That's going to be some lengthy repartee, given how many Gail's accumulated over the years.

MEET MIKE

Meanwhile, there's a new love interest for Liz McDonald in the shape of handsome Mike Thornberry. He's played by Louis Emerick, who's best known as Brookside's Mick Johnson, but had a brief stint in Corrie in the 1980s. 'I appeared in the show in 1986 as a delivery man,' recalls Louis. 'It's only taken 32 years to be invited back!'

Mike is Steve's former teacher, and when he asks his ex-pupil for a job at Streetcars, Steve takes him on, believing there's some fun to be had in being his teacher's boss. But will he still be smiling if his mum and Mike get it on?

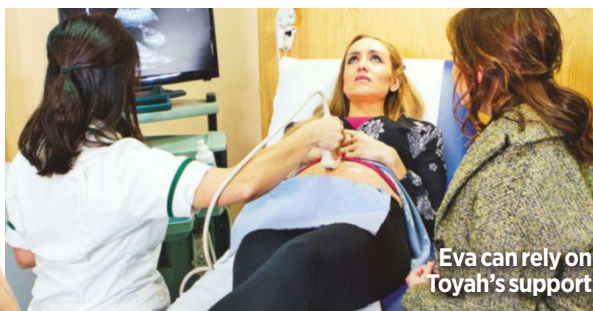

Will Mike woo Liz?

Worried: Eva's baby bump is getting bigger

Eva rumbled?

The barmaid's under pressure as she tries to hide her pregnancy

Eva can rely on Toyah's support

Pregnant Eva thought she'd come up with the perfect way to kill two birds with one stone when she agreed to secretly hand her unwanted baby to Toyah. But it's only going to work if she can keep her pregnancy a secret.

As we head into Spring, the pressure mounts. Not only does Eva have her burgeoning bump to worry about, but Leanne's on a mission to get fit, and asks her half-sister to go to exercise classes with her.

With Eva in no fit state to be bouncing around, she and Toyah throw Leanne off the scent by saying that they're starting a language course. That works, until Leanne insists on coming, too. Talk about a piggin' mess! Is Eva about to come unstuck?

Out with the old: Carla and her new body are moving on

Carla's new lover

Dan's no longer the man... but who is the lucky guy?

Talk about not letting the grass grow under her feet. Just a few weeks after receiving a new kidney from half-brother Aidan, Carla will be putting her rejuvenated body to the test by embarking on a steamy relationship.

Who is her mystery man? Well, you'll have to wait and see, but we can confirm that, just like Carla's recent conquest, Daniel Osbourne, her new lover will have considerably fewer miles on the clock than she has.

'They have great chemistry,' reveals Corrie boss Kate Oates, 'but like most Weatherfield relationships, this one won't be straightforward. Carla's very keen to keep it under wraps. She knows that tongues will be wagging if word gets out – and one person in particular will not be pleased at all.'

So, just who is the lucky man this time?

Led astray: Tyrone seeks comfort after rows with Fizz

Tyrone the cheat!

The couple will soon be at loggerheads over Tyrone's young daughter, Ruby, whose behaviour is getting worse.

Worried for the safety of her own daughter, Hope, Fizz packs her bags and decides to live with Chesney for a while. But when Fizz is away, Ty will stray, finding comfort in the arms of another...

Which Weatherfield woman will Tyrone end up turning to? And how will Fizz react if she finds out about his fling?

ALSO THIS SPRING...

We round up the other big stories happening in Weatherfield over the next few weeks...

Audrey, smitten

The crimper ends up in hospital after being mugged, but a hospital radio DJ called Geoff soon takes her mind off her aches and pains. Will he be just what the doctor ordered?

Grand designs

Sally decides it's time to give No 4 a new look – but when she tasks Tim with buying some rolls of designer wallpaper, how long will it be before her decorating dream ends in disaster?

Where's Billy?

His friends and family become concerned when he goes missing, and have no idea that the troubled vicar is on drugs. Can his loved ones track him down before it's too late?

Ali's lie

Michelle's biological son has been insisting that his legal mum, Wendy, wants nothing to do with him – but when Wendy then turns up on the cobbles, it's clear he's been telling porkies. Why?

Ant & Dec's Saturday Night Takeaway

SATURDAY / ITV / 7.00PM

Cancel your weekend plans – Ant McPartlin and Declan Donnelly are back for a new series of their award-winning Saturday Night Takeaway. TV Times met up with them, both 42, to find out what fun and games they have in store for us this year...

What can you tell us about the 15th series?

Ant: All your favourites are returning, like Ant vs Dec and I'm a Celebrity... Get Out of Me Ear.

Dec: We're doing our biggest ever Place on the Plane giveaway – more seats than ever before, and going to a location that we're hugely excited about.

Ant: We're going to a place that we really want to go to – and they have golf courses there!

That's lucky! And which of you has been winning at golf recently?

Dec: We haven't played much lately. It's too cold and wet – we're very fair-weather golfers.

Are you still competitive with each other?

Ant: I don't think we're ever going to get less competitive! We're a bit more chilled than we were – we're not going to have a hissy fit if we lose now but we both always want to win anything we play.

Dec: We both like winning, that's the thing, which really plays to our advantage when we're on the same side. But when we're against each other we both desperately want to win. So Ant vs Dec is always crunch time for us.

What's new on this year's show?

Ant: We've got a new drama series in the vein of Who Shot Simon Cowell? This time we're sticking with working as The Honoured [a secret service staffed by celebrities] for Joanna Lumley.

Dec: Members of The Honoured are being kidnapped so we have to track down who's doing it and why. There's a big baddie behind it. It was enormous fun to shoot. David Walliams is appearing in this one. He twisted our arm – he always wants to be in everything.

Ant: Emilia Fox, Alan Shearer and William Roache are all back again. And there are some new cameos but they're surprises because they're the bad guys!

Does it make you want to do more acting?

Dec: In a word – yes!

Ant: We love it. That's where we started. It's a slightly different discipline for us and it reminds us of being back on Byker Grove.

Dec: Last year we took the best of Who Shot Simon Cowell? and The Missing Crown Jewels and cut them together into a half hour one-off which was on ITV at Christmas and that went down really well. So we'll do the same with this one and then we might look at spreading it out and doing a few specials, maybe a Christmas special.

What about a big-screen movie?

Ant: Let's not run before we can walk! Look, we'd love to do a movie but let's see...

Game guests: Joanna Lumley and Emilia Fox return for the new whodunit

“We try to get in shape because Takeaway is a really tiring, physical seven weeks”

Do you have to get fit before a new series of Takeaway?

Ant: Yes, the *Ant vs Dec*s have become quite physical, and the End of the Show Shows are tough.

Dec: We normally have a post-Christmas regime. Once we've had a bit of a blow-out we try to get in shape because it's a really tiring, physical seven weeks.

Who's doing the End of the Show Shows this year?

Dec: We're kicking off with Kylie Minogue, who'll be performing her new single and some of her biggest hits. That'll be a lot of fun. We've also got Rita Ora and Paloma Faith lined up. A lot of people are up for it this year, which is great.

Ant: It's been the most pre-booked series we've ever had.

You've just won three more gongs at the National Television Awards. What do they mean to you at this stage in your career?

Ant: For Takeaway they always mean a lot because they're voted for by the viewers and we're always up against great shows. And then this year for Takeaway to get the inaugural Bruce Forsyth Entertainment Award was amazing, a real honour. It's great for the team who work so hard.

Dec: Takeaway is on quite a long time before the awards so for it still to be remembered fondly by the viewers in October and November is a real accolade. And to get the TV Presenter award for the 17th year in a row is just incredible. Every year it feels like the first year: your heart's beating, your hands are sweaty, the other nominees get a bigger cheer than you, and you think, 'This is the year we're not going to get it'. Then they open the envelope and read your name out. It's the best feeling.

Talking of awards... You also won our very own TV Times Award for Favourite Presenters just before Christmas!

Dec: We did! Thank you so much to the TV Times readers, that means a lot because it's voted for by viewers.

Ant: We never take it for granted, we just keep trying to entertain people and we're always grateful.

EMMA COX

ANT AND DEC'S SATURDAY NIGHT TAKEAWAY IS PREVIEWED ON PAGES 34-35

OUR DREAM GUESTS

Wanted list: Sir Ian McKellen

Ant: Sir Ian McKellen once told me how much he loves the show, how he watches it every Saturday night, and I was just thinking, 'That's Gandalf!' We'll have to get him on soon, perhaps for the End of the Show Show.

Dec: We'd love to get Adele on one day.

A) She's hugely talented, brilliant and sells loads of records, and B) She looks like she's really good fun – I think we'd have a right laugh with her!

Could Adele feature on a future show?

OUR BEST GUESTS

Ant: Will Smith was one of my favourites. He kind of took over and got the whole audience on their feet, so that was good!

Dec: It's important that our guests 'get it'. Justin Timberlake was amazing fun and wanted to mess about and do comedy sketches. He kept saying, 'Write me in more'. Mariah Carey was brilliant too. We'd written a sketch for her and she wrote notes all over it. So we did what she said. She really, really wanted to turn us into rabbits, so we let her!

Past pals: Mariah Carey and Justin Timberlake

Classic to caveman cuisine!

Mary Berry on giving favourite recipes a makeover, cooking on an open fire and her endless search for new ideas

NEW COOKERY

Classic Mary Berry

MONDAY / BBC1 / 8.30PM

There's so much more to Mary Berry than her stint judging The Great British Bake Off.

The iconic show and soggy bottoms may have placed Mary permanently in our affections (and quite rightly so!), but away from the limelight, chef, journalist and author Mary loves nothing more than cooking for kindred spirits, trying new dishes and perfecting her culinary works of art.

This week, in BBC1's new six-part series Classic Mary Berry, the queen of cakes is embarking on a food-fuelled odyssey, refining her legendary classic recipes and making fresh versions of favourites.

Along the way, Mary will also share her tips for fuss-free food and widen her culinary horizons with a touch of time travelling!

Here, in an exclusive interview, Mary, 82, tells TVTimes more...

What's your new series about?

It's a trip down memory lane with my classic recipes, but I've updated some of them. I've added new ingredients, using food in season, and made them easier to make. I think all the recipes are achievable.

I prefer to cook than to do anything else

Viewers will be reminded of things that maybe they used to make and would love to have again. What I love about this series is that I get to cook, but also visit other places to get new ideas and learn further skills.

What's on the menu?

These really are my favourites that I cook and come back to all the time. You'll see everything from kedgeree and the ultimate beef burger to drop scones, banoffee pie – don't we just love banoffee pie?! – and the best tarte tatin that works every time. There's even old-fashioned food like prawn cocktail. I remember prawn cocktail being the first course if you went out.

What do you think keeps your passion for cooking alive?

I love food, I love cooking and I love having people around. I'm so lucky to have a family that really enjoys food. I prefer to cook than to do anything else. There's always something new to learn.

In this week's episode you embark on 'caveman cooking'...

I met chef Niklas Ekstedt, who has perfected 'caveman cooking', and we make delicious venison meatballs. In his restaurant in Sweden he cooks everything on open fires – they don't use gas, electricity or even a barbecue! He drops food into an open-bowl fire. I don't know if I'll take it up but it was different!

Any other personal highlights?

Visiting a London primary school for the second episode was an absolute eye-opener. It's in quite a deprived area and it is so special. They have a secret garden, and use all the vegetables for their school dinners. They grow their own herbs, fruit and have chickens, too. I met the children, who have their lessons out of doors a lot, and they were delightful. They name all their chickens and talk to them and collect the eggs. I cooked a stir-fry with some of the children, and we had all clean plates! One great thing I noted was a huge notice on the school gates to parents saying, 'Greet your child with a smile, not a mobile'.

Family: Mary loves cooking for her grandchildren

Favourite: Banoffee pie features in the show

New skills: Chef Niklas Ekstedt shows Mary 'caveman cooking'

Did you find yourself outside a lot during this series?

Yes, one of my favourite episodes is in Cornwall. I went to see award-winning chef Nathan Outlaw in Port Isaac and we cooked outdoors in the rain! We dressed for the weather and then cooked mackerel and a delicious salad of beetroot, apple and walnut. He's very knowledgeable on fish and even though it rained it was great!

ELAINE REILLY

CLASSIC MARY BERRY IS PREVIEWED ON PAGES 50-51

BITE-SIZED BERRY!

Mary reveals her culinary secrets...

The one food I can't live without is... toast and marmalade in the morning. I must have it.

The best meal I've had prepared for me is... I recently had a wonderful meal at Le Gavroche, Michel Roux Jr's restaurant. I don't mind what I have there as it's always so beautifully prepared and very special.

The person who taught me the most is... my cookery teacher, Miss Date. I remember when I started cooking in domestic-science lessons; it was my sanctuary at school.

The best cooking tip I've been given is... When you're baking, weigh carefully and follow a good recipe.

My favourite meal is... a roast best end of neck of lamb with mint sauce. My mother used to call it 'chops in a bunch!' Just after the war, when meat was short, we used to have all the vegetables with mint sauce but without the lamb. Now that delicious English lamb is plentiful I appreciate it.

The worst thing I've ever eaten is... oysters. I've never acquired a taste for them. I also don't enjoy seed cake – I don't like caraway seeds.

The cooking gadget I couldn't live without is... At my stage of life I'm very keen on having a mixer and a processor. I'm a bit tired of chopping and beating. A sharp knife is a must too.

My earliest food memory is... shrimps being peeled at Parkgate in Cheshire. It was on a visit to an aunt and I can remember seeing ladies sitting on chairs at their front doors shelling shrimps.

The best piece of advice I've been given is... don't put off till tomorrow what you can do today! Get everything done today – preparation is the greatest way to reduce stress.

Sun, sand and celebrations!

Sherrie Hewson and John Challis on Benidorm's 10th-anniversary series, which kicks off with a long-awaited wedding for Joyce and Monty!

NEW COMEDY

Benidorm

WEDNESDAY / ITV / 9.00PM

Sherrie Hewson and John Challis can't hide their excitement when they clap eyes on the super sandcastle-themed Victoria sponge, topped with sweet little handmade figures of their Benidorm characters, that TV Times has had custom-made as a centrepiece for our photoshoot.

'Our writer Derren Litten will be so thrilled because it's very Benidorm,' smiles Sherrie.

'We love the little figures, we are interested in taking them home!'

grins John. 'At first I thought it was a real sandcastle. I didn't realise it was edible and it's very delicious!'

It's a February afternoon and Sherrie and John have joined us at Holborn Studios in London ahead of their sunny sitcom's double celebration.

Not only is the award-winning comedy back for a 10th-anniversary series, but there's also a much-anticipated wedding in this week's opening episode for their loved-up characters, the Solana resort's long-suffering manager, Joyce Temple-Savage, and loveable conman Monty Staines.

But in true Benidorm style, their big day doesn't go without a hitch...

With our snaps in the bag, Sherrie, 67, and John, 75, tell us about sickly seagulls, hair-raising speeches and why Benidorm is better than ever...

“There's a great love for it, and that's testament to the writing”

JOHN CHALLIS

What a lovely way to kick off the 10th series, but will Joyce and Monty finally say 'I do'?

John: Well, it all goes a bit wrong for Monty of course, but he does his best. He always tries hard, doesn't he? Sherrie: I loved this episode because we spent five days filming on an island off Benidorm. However, it's quite a traumatic wedding day for Joyce because she's sick over the side of the boat on the way, and there are a lot of ill seagulls on the island so she gets pooped on!

Poor Joyce also gets a roasting from Mateo in his best man's speech!

Sherrie: Mateo's speech is the highlight of the episode for me. He's read things on the internet and thinks it's what you should say at a wedding. He calls Joyce all sorts of names, but believes it's British humour. We couldn't do the scene for laughing!

Will Monty become embroiled in more dodgy dealings this series?

Sherrie: The trouble is Monty's a wheeler-dealer and that means he's going to come unstuck at some point. His relationship with entertainer Sammy Valentino [Shane Richie] certainly lands him in trouble.

John: Yes, Monty's still a sucker, and he has a lot of scenes with Sammy. It's wonderful stuff.

Former Spandau Ballet frontman Tony Hadley is booked to sing at the wedding, but which other guest stars can we expect to see?

Sherrie: Tony is the sweetest man and he loved being in Benidorm. We've also got Nigel Havers back as manic dentist Stanley Keen, and Shane Richie becomes a regular as Sammy, who really is psychotic! John: Frankie Goes to Hollywood singer Holly Johnson turns up, as well as the Chuckle Brothers and Hale and Pace. But because Monty is always talking about almost signing pop group T'Pau in the 80s, we have singer Carol Decker on the show. It's a brilliant moment! One of the great things about being on this show is that we get to meet our heroes. We're just as starstruck as anybody else!

“It feels like a new Benidorm – after 10 years, that's quite a feat!”

SHERRIE HEWSON

Ten years is such an achievement! What's the secret to Benidorm's success?

John: I find a lot of similarities to Only Fools and Horses in terms of how the public views the show. There's a great love for it, and that's testament to the writing. Sherrie: Derren Litten is wonderful at writing new characters, too, so the show keeps evolving. It feels like it's a new Benidorm. After 10 years, that's quite a feat!

REBECCA MAHONEY

'We got to eat llama'

John Torode and Gregg Wallace
on the new series, new outfits and new taste sensations...

NEW COOKERY MasterChef

MON, THU, FRI / BBC1 / TIMES VARY

Gregg Wallace and John Torode are excited about putting a new batch of 56 amateur cooks thorough their paces in the 14th series of MasterChef.

Over the course of seven weeks and a wide range of challenges, including The Critic's Test where the contestants must cook a dish set by a food expert, they'll be whittled down to just three.

TV Times met up with John, 52, and Gregg, 53, to hear what's in store and what winds them up – they are now such a double act that they often finish each other's sentences during our chat!

My top challenge this series is...

Gregg: I loved the contestants cooking for the RAF. We got to go up in a helicopter and get dressed up like middle-aged members of Top Gun! It was great fun.

John: Travelling to Peru was interesting. We got to eat llama and a bowl of frozen piranha heads.

The best thing about the show is...

John: The contestants' diversity.

We've got housewives, dentists, surgeons, a rubbish collector and a cathedral organist in this series.

Gregg: Yes, we've got some seriously big characters, you normally get one or two but this time we've got a whole basketful!

The most annoying thing in the MasterChef kitchen is...

Gregg: When contestants undercook things and then say, 'Yes, but I didn't want to overcook it', like those are the only two options. How about just cooked!

John: When someone takes a very expensive product and has no idea how to prepare it. In this series, somebody used a kilo of lobster to make a pasta dish that tasted of tomato sauce. That upset me.

The sweet stuff: Gregg loves a Paris-Brest

From contestants to critics: Giovanna Ryan, Saliha Mahmood-Ahmed and Steve Kieley

The foodie styles I've had enough of are...

John: Foams! I call them 'Phlegm' because that's the noise they make when they're being made and they look like it on the plate!

Gregg: Yes. I can't imagine saying, 'Listen guys, why don't we all go out and have a really good foam?'

My favourite dish ever is...

Gregg: Peter Bayless, our second winner, made a Paris-Brest, which is a circle of choux pastry with a coffee cream and almonds, that was simply stunning. My wife Anne-Marie makes them for me now.

The most creative dish is...

John: There's someone coming up who does a dessert tribute to George Michael called a Careless Whisper, which is very clever.

The best advice I could give to MasterChef hopefuls is...

Gregg: Practice what you're not good at because you're going to need an all-round cookery education.

John: People who do really well understand their style, stick to their guns and do it with finesse.

When I'm not on TV I like...

John: Doing yoga. It's great for flexibility and I really enjoy it.

Gregg: I play computer games and read history books. I also go to the gym, although if I wasn't on the telly I'd probably give myself over to gluttony!

NEW CRIME DRAMA

Shakespeare & Hathaway

MONDAY-FRIDAY / BBC1 / 2.15PM

When TV Times heard that EastEnders actress Jo Joyner and

Waterloo Road's Mark Benton were starring in a new drama called Shakespeare & Hathaway: Private Investigators, we hotfooted it to Stratford-upon-Avon, where filming was taking place in the birthplace of the Bard.

But imagine our surprise when, on arrival to this picturesque market town that is the Mecca for fans of William Shakespeare, there was not a doublet or a ruff in sight!

This is because despite the title, this isn't a period drama about the famed playwright and his wife, Anne Hathaway – although it is peppered with references to his plays.

In fact, it's a contemporary, daytime crime series about a shambling, cash-strapped private eye called Frank Hathaway (played by Mark) and his new assistant Lu Shakespeare (Jo), whose previous job was working in a hair salon!

The unlikely duo team up after Lu hires Frank to investigate her fiancé, who she suspects of being unfaithful. When a shocking turn of events at Lu's wedding results in a murder inquiry, it's up to her and Frank to solve the crime – and before you can say 'whodunit', they've agreed to become partners in crime-solving!

To find out more, TV Times sat down with Jo, 40, and Mark, 52 at the atmospheric Wroxall Abbey Hotel – where, intriguingly, the message 'Die Sally die!' has been daubed in red on one of the bedroom windows as part of a Romeo and Juliet-themed episode currently being filmed there.

Mark Benton and Jo Joyner on their fun daytime detective show set in William Shakespeare's birthplace...

“We have a chase down the river in those swan pedalos!”

MARK BENTON

Mark starred in Waterloo Road with Chelsee Healey

“We could have a quiz in TVTimes that asks: ‘How many Shakespeare references did you spot?’”

JO JOYNER

What are Frank and Lu like?

Jo: Lu is very fun and bubbly. That’s why people open up to her. Frank’s chaotic and skint!

Mark: Frank’s a real scruff and his business is falling apart. It’s that thing of opposites together. Lu has a photographic memory, and he’s an old hand at being a detective because he used to be a policeman.

How do they react to each other when they team up?

Jo: Lu likes the challenge of someone who might be a bit pessimistic. Frank’s like a bear with a sore head, and she thrives on the challenge of cheering him up. Luckily, she’s got a thick skin!

Mark: And even though he’s grumpy most of the time, Frank does like having Lu around, especially as he can’t remember stuff and she can.

Why does Lu, a hairdresser, suddenly become a detective?!

Jo: She’s about to get married after a whirlwind romance. Let’s just say she doesn’t know as much as she should about her fiancé and then Frank checks him out... Consequently she decides on a change and buys into the business. Frank’s got no choice – she either joins him or the business goes under.

Are there a lot of Shakespeare references?

Mark: Every episode is loosely based on a Shakespeare play. Not necessarily plots, sometimes it’s little hints or character names – it’s a really nice touch and another layer that we loved. But, funnily enough, our characters never mention the strange coincidence that they’re called Shakespeare and Hathaway!

Jo: We could have a quiz in TVTimes that asks: ‘How many Shakespeare references did you spot this week in Shakespeare & Hathaway?’

We love that idea! Have you done any Shakespeare on the stage?

Jo: Only at drama school.

Mark: I did Richard III with the Royal Shakespeare Company in Stratford a long time ago. I’ve also done As You Like It at the National

On the case: Lu, Frank and their assistant Sebastian (Patrick Walshe McBride)

Theatre and A Midsummer Night’s Dream at the Lyric Hammersmith.

Have you ever known anyone who’s hired a private investigator?

Jo: No, but I think I’d like to be one! I’m quite nosy and I like to ask lots of questions of people and find out as much information as I can.

Mark: I would be terrible. I’d have something right in front of my face and wouldn’t realise it was there.

There’s so much crime drama on TV. What’s different about this?

Jo: It’s not some slick murder mystery where we go in and say: ‘I’ve got this, I’ve cracked it.’ And it doesn’t take itself too seriously.

Mark: The comic tone of it will set it apart from Midsomer

Drama: Jo as EastEnders’ Tanya with co-star Jake Wood

Murders and shows like that. You get to like the characters and the fact that they’re not perfect and don’t get on all the time.

Can you see this becoming a long-running show?

Jo: I think it could trot along happily for a long time particularly if we get the calibre of people that we’ve got coming along for it – the likes of Nick Moran, Timothy West and Morgana Robinson.

Mark: As long as the quality is there, then we would be there.

There’s some great physical comedy in the show, too...

Mark: Yeah, you can’t beat a good bit of slapstick, can you? In one episode, instead of a high-speed car chase, we have a chase down the River Avon in those swan pedalos!

Jo: We had a safety briefing. We were wearing wetsuits and we had stuntmen holding the pedalos. But the water was only up to our knees! I thought: ‘Seriously? I’d get in this with my kids!’

Tom Burke and Holliday Grainger on how Strike and Robin's macabre new case brings them closer

Romance & revenge...

NEW DRAMA

Strike

SUNDAY / BBC1 / 9.00PM

The 'will they won't they' chemistry between private detective Cormoran Strike (Tom Burke) and his eager assistant, Robin Ellacott (Holliday Grainger), was captivating when BBC1 crime drama Strike debuted last autumn.

Now, the crime-solvers return for a new two-part case, Career of Evil, based again on one of the best-selling novels written by JK Rowling under the pen name Robert Galbraith.

Strike and Robin's unspoken bond is strengthened when they receive a macabre parcel containing a severed leg. As they try to work out who has sent it, the case forces them both to revisit the darkest moments from their pasts.

TV Times met up with Tom, 36, and Holliday, 29, to find out more...

How do Strike and Robin react when they receive the parcel?

Tom: It leads Strike to try to get closure on some of his old cases; they are like ghosts that keep him awake. The investigation also hits at a raw nerve concerning his mother's death, which was traumatic. Now, Strike and Robin are opening up about their pasts and are becoming protective of each other.

Holliday: Yes, the nature of the crime brings out their back-story. Something terrible happened to Robin at university and this brings back memories. It ignites her bravery and makes her want to prove herself and she takes risks that maybe she shouldn't...

Robin is preparing for her wedding to fiancé Matthew (Kerr Logan) but is she getting closer to Strike?

Tom: Her wedding is now on the horizon, but the danger of this grim situation puts Strike and Robin in a special space together. There is something there but they are in denial and don't feel in a hurry to do anything about it. If the show returns for another series after this one, it'd be a shame to leap ahead too quickly.

Holliday: Yes, filming that would be awkward, so hopefully that won't happen for a while! This case brings them closer, but it's lovely how long it's taking for them to realise they need each other. I don't think Robin is aware of her feelings because they're tied in with her job and how Strike respects her work. Matthew's her rock and they've been through a lot but he is too controlling. She'd be more fulfilled with Strike.

Robin and Strike travel to Cumbria in a battered Land Rover for this investigation. Was that fun?

Tom: Yes, and Holliday was brilliant at driving it, because it was a rusty old

Still suited? Robin and Matthew banger. I wouldn't have known what I was doing. She was doing three-point turns and all sorts!

“We’ve had good vibes from JK Rowling”

TOM BURKE

Do you get much feedback from JK Rowling?

Tom: Jo only says what we need to hear so you have to listen carefully. She is involved up to a certain point and then it's our thing to get on with. But we've had good vibes from her.

Holliday: The fact she has only given us specific story notes gives you confidence you must be on the right track because she's not someone who'd hold back if she didn't think you were right. I just can't wait to read her next Strike book!

Are you a fan of other crime dramas?

Tom: I can watch any detective show; I love them! I'm quite good at guessing whodunit. I sit down with a pen and paper writing down all the clues!

Holliday: If I'm watching crime dramas and someone goes, 'It's definitely him', I say 'Ssh!' because I want to believe the red herrings!

Jennifer Kirby on why she loves her character

DRAMA

Call the Midwife

SUNDAY / BBC1 / 8.00PM

Call the Midwife favourite Jennifer Kirby, 29, talks exclusively to TVTimes about Valerie's taboo new storyline and why she's glad the spirited nurse isn't looking for love...

What's Valerie doing this week?

She's running sex-education classes because she feels that girls should have as much information as possible, as back then it was taboo. That was fun to film, drawing on diagrams! She and Lucille [Leonie Elliott] make a great double act because they have very different opinions on it.

There is conflict with one of the girls' mums, too, isn't there?

Yes, one mum takes strong exception and says that we should be punished for putting on the classes. Valerie gets angry, but she helps sort the underlying issues that this lady has and we find out why she reacts in such an alarming way.

What do you love about Valerie?

She is forthright but vulnerable because we have seen how she was bullied in the Army. That has taken its toll, so she has two interesting layers to her because she has confidence in her ability but also an undercurrent of having gone through a difficult experience.

Will there be any romance for her?

You'll have to ask our creator, Heidi Thomas. I don't mind if she doesn't have any because it's nice that she is independent, defiant and has a feminist streak. She has been to all kinds of places on her own so it would take a special person to seduce Valerie.

Caring: Valerie

What reaction have you had to Valerie from viewers?

One of the loveliest things I had was from a doctor, who, after he watched the Christmas special [when Valerie dealt with what initially appeared to be a stillbirth], said he loved the way that I portrayed the anguish that every doctor and nurse feels acutely when they lose a patient.

Valerie is a good friend to Lucille. Have you taken Leonie under your wing, too?

Leonie is such a pro that she didn't need my advice but it was great showing her around. I told her just to have fun because everybody only wants you to do your best.

Valerie has a new beehive hairstyle this series; does it take ages to do?

No, but it takes lots of dry shampoo and back-combing! There was a picture of Audrey Hepburn with almost that exact hairdo and it looks so cool. But those Sixties styles are funny – if you saw somebody in the street with it now you'd be quite shocked!

NEW LIFESTYLE*100 Years Younger in 21 Days

TUESDAY / ITV / 9.00PM

Is it really possible to shave years off your age without surgery?

Eight famous faces are trying to do just that in ITV's four-part series, 100 Years Younger in 21 Days, in which they go to a clinic on the island of Sardinia, home to one of the world's oldest populations.

The celebrities are scientifically assessed to see how their body, face and brain ages compare to their real ages. They then undergo a strict exercise and diet regime, and some quirky youth-boosting treatments, in an attempt to collectively reduce their test scores by a century.

Here, two soap legends, EastEnders favourite June Brown, 91, and former Emmerdale and Corrie star Claire King, 55, tell TV Times how they got on...

What was the appeal for you?

June: I've always been fit and active and tried to have a good diet, but I was underweight so I wanted to feel stronger. Sardinia was lovely; they live in a more simple society and that's the key to longevity.

Claire: I liked that the clinic was anti-surgery. I wasn't a happy bunny with my scores, but this has reaffirmed my belief that you can embrace getting older, but try to help your body along.

What was the toughest part of the regime?

June: We joked that it was like Alcatraz! I was fine for the first few days, but then I hurt my back so I couldn't do a lot of exercises, which made me cross. We wore watches to show the steps we'd taken and I kept saying to Sid Owen [June's former EastEnders co-star], 'Put your watch on me so I can have your steps!' I also refused to give up smoking; it's one of my only pleasures.

“The strangest thing was having a coffee enema!”

CLAIRE KING

Claire: There were times when it felt like they were saying, 'We are going to whip, thrash and starve you!' But I didn't find the diet hard because I live partly in Spain so have a Mediterranean diet anyway. When we detoxed I didn't get grumpy, but Russell Grant hated it!

What was your most memorable treatment?

June: I didn't have face peels because the facial doctor said to me, 'I wouldn't do anything to your face.' That was nice, unless he felt it

TUESDAY / CHANNEL 5 / 8.00PM

The second series of Secrets of the National Trust sees

There are also places like the mill that I visited in series one. My mum was a mill worker and I got a feeling of what her life must have been like.

3 It helps our heritage

The history of these houses is our history. It's why the Royal Family stands for everybody – we know their lineage right the way back to William the Conqueror. These properties tell our history through other people's stories.

4 You unearth some quirky characters

People are interested in stories about eccentric aristocrats, and the Trust has plenty – such as Baron de Rothschild at Waddesdon. He was a collector, teetotaler and vegetarian who built a French château in Buckinghamshire!

5 It's a gardener's paradise

The Trust looks after some wonderful gardens, like Stowe Landscape Garden, which was designed by the famous Capability Brown. I've always fancied having Stowe's Temple of British Worthies in my garden, but I'm sure my wife wouldn't allow it!

was past repair! I did have a facial, though, where you put wee on a flannel and wipe it over your face. I'm better off with my face cream!

Claire: Bill Roache [Claire's former Corrie co-star, aka Ken Barlow, is a surprise guest] was good at teaching us meditation, but the strangest thing was having a coffee enema. I said, 'I'm not doing that on TV!' But then I thought, 'Let's see if it works.' I even used cow pee shampoo, but I knew that wouldn't work!

“We joked that it was like Alcatraz!”

JUNE BROWN

It seems like you all got on, did that help?

June: Yes, there was no competition. Everybody wanted to improve and was very helpful. We tried learning Italian, but I struggled to see the pictures held up. Sherrie Hewson and I had great fun over that. Claire: Laughter kept us going and we'd have a little social session each night. Shaun Ryder was the rebel!

An innocent man?

Suranne Jones and Lennie James on their thriller about a charming chancer accused of kidnapping his daughter...

NEW DRAMA

Save Me

WEDNESDAY / SKY ATLANTIC / 9.00PM

Two of TV's top talents come together this week as Suranne Jones and Lennie James star in gritty new six-part drama Save Me.

Created and written by Lennie (Line of Duty), who plays the series' anti-hero Nelson 'Nelly' Rowe, it is about a man who must prove his innocence when he's accused of kidnapping his estranged teenage daughter, Jody.

Ducker and diver Nelly's world is turned upside down when he's arrested. And with Jody's mother Claire (Doctor Foster's Suranne) convinced of his guilt, Nelly must set out to save his daughter and clear his name.

TV Times caught up with Lennie, 52, and Suranne, 39, to learn more...

What are your characters like?

Lennie: Nelly is that geezer in the pub who, about 15 years ago, all the men wanted to drink with and all the women wanted to get next to – he just never did anything with it. These days, Nelly is resourceful and loyal but he's also a bully, a liar and a drinker and is kind of flawed.

Suranne: Claire grew up around the South East London council estate where Nelly still lives. They had an intense summer of love together, which resulted in a child. Then Claire moved away, got married and is very much 'new money'.

They're thrown back together when Jody's abducted. How do they feel about seeing each other?

Lennie: Claire's the love of Nelly's life but it was an impossible love. They met when he was a dazzling fella and if he was smarter he would have held on to her, but he wasn't.

Suranne: Nelly drags her back to her old world; the one she's been trying to get away from. But he has a charm that she can't resist and they go on a journey they didn't expect...

Feeling the pinch: Nelly is arrested

What happens?

Lennie: Nelly sets out to prove he didn't kidnap Jody and to find the person who did. It explores the effect this has on him and Claire, and the ripples it causes in the community.

Suranne, you won the National TV Award for Best Drama Performance for Doctor Foster. Could you have predicted that?

Suranne: I don't think you can ever predict anything, you just have to make shows you love and hope for the best!

Goodbye Rana, hello Leanne!

Zeedan makes a pass at his late dad's former lover

It's all a bit 'eww!' when Zeedan lunges at Leanne on the sofa this week.

If his dad hadn't died in the fire at Victoria Court, Leanne would be his stepmum. But the lad's all over the place since finding out about Rana's shenanigans with Kate.

Having accepted a bribe from Rana's parents to stay quiet about his wife's affair, Zeedan's trying to carry on as if all is fine and dandy. But Yasmeen can see that her grandson is struggling.

The chef thinks the answer is to keep Kate and Rana apart, and when he hears that Phelan wants a tenant for Luke's room, he suggests to Kate's new girlfriend, Sophie, that she move in. Kate reluctantly agrees, and Zee reports back to Rana, knowing it will upset her. But then Kate has a change of heart and tells Sophie it's too soon for them to live together.

Upset, Zeedan offloads on Leanne, and tells her that he still loves Rana. She assures him that he'll find love again, but she gets more than she bargained for when he makes a pass at her.

Horried, Leanne storms out, with a sorry Zeedan in tow. Kate spots them and tells Rana, who says she's not surprised, as their marriage is purely financial. As the women have a heart-to-heart, they admit their love. Will they become a proper couple – and how will Zeedan react?

Billy tries to score more drugs from brother Lee

Drugs exchange

You only have to look at Billy to know he's in a bad way – the law of soap dictates that men must never shave when they're having a crisis. As he struggles to cope without drugs, he agrees to let the Wicked Witch of Weatherfield, Geraldine, take Summer, and then meets his brother, Lee, at the church, where he offers him Todd's pocket watch as payment for more methadone. Will Lee come up with the goods?

Summer can't stick Geraldine's place for long, and when she later returns home, she's stunned to see what a mess the flat is in.

Worried and upset, she goes over to No 11 and spills her heart out to Phelan, who promises to help her sort things out.

But what does he have in mind?

Bethany attacks

The troubled lap dancer lashes out when she has a flashback about Nathan

A panicked Bethany fights back at punters

Bethany's back working at the lap-dancing club this week, but the old Tassels – where you could be fully clothed, and your mum and nan could have a nice time on the Lambrini – is no more.

There's a new manager, and this one thinks it's OK to have sleazeballs putting their hands all over you. It's all too much for Bethany, who has a flashback to her abuser, Nathan, and attacks one of the punters.

“She picks up a glass bottle, smashes it on the table, then glasses him with it!”

Earlier in the week, Bethany's at the salon, having agreed to do her apprenticeship. But after a run-in with a customer, she ditches the scissors and heads for the door.

'She has a go at an older male customer who pays her a compliment,' says Lucy Fallon, who plays Bethany. 'She asks if he'd have said that if she were a male hairdresser. Then she hears Audrey, David and Craig talking about her, and she's furious.'

Having heard that Tassels is under new ownership, Bethany goes for an audition, and is soon back on the payroll. But it's all change. The 'uniform' is now a bikini – which Bethany refuses to wear – and the no-touching policy has gone.

'The new owner makes her dance for a stag party,' adds Lucy. 'They are trying to grab her, and no one tells them to stop.'

The stag starts getting really in her face, and she has a panic attack and flashback to when she was with Nathan.

All she can see is him.

'She picks up a glass bottle, smashes it on the table, then glasses him with it.'

The next thing, he's bleeding everywhere and the police have been called.'

Too close for comfort: Bethany flips

Bethany is arrested and charged with GBH, and when she confides in Sarah that she fears she had a psychotic episode, her mum suggests she has more counselling.

But will Bethany's next stop be a young offender institution?

Secret snog:
Will Bob and Laurel be caught by Brenda?

Bob and Laurel get passionate at her place – unaware that Brenda's on her way round ...

Affair exposed?

After everything that Laurel's been through recently with husband Ashley's dementia and subsequent death, it seems only fair that her next love interest should be a decent, honourable man, worthy of her affections. But you can't have everything, and she's got Bob Hope instead.

Try as she might, Laurel can't bury her feelings for the cavorting café owner, and this week sees the pair indulging in a steamy snog in her kitchen. But as they're getting passionate amongst the pots and pans, little do they realise that Bob's other half, Brenda, is on her way round.

It's obvious that the pair are going to end up locking lips, judging by the chemistry between them at the church earlier. Laurel is upset that Ashley's window has been smashed, and when Bob tries to fix it, there's a 'moment' between them.

'The new vicar, Rhys, doesn't like the window at all,' reveals Charlotte Bellamy, the actress who plays Laurel, 'he thinks it's crass and gaudy. But of course, it means so much to Laurel.

'Perhaps it signifies the smashing of her relationship and the fact that she's moving on from Ashley. But ultimately, it's a moment of Bob coming to her rescue. He cares very much about how she feels, because she's

Nasty bump: Laurel is becoming more and more important to him.'

Bob's feelings for Laurel are brought further into focus when she's involved in an accident. Jimmy King, who can't seem to do anything right, reverses his truck straight into her. Bob's devastated when he finds out, fearing the worst.

Things aren't as bad as they could be, and Laurel escapes with a broken arm. But the incident makes Bob realise just how much she means to him.

'When Bob finds out that it's just a broken arm,' explains Charlotte, 'he has to go and see her, to express how he's feeling – and she admits that she feels exactly the same. There are fireworks... but what they don't know is that Brenda is walking up the path!'

Oblivious to what's going on, Brenda is trying to find her other half, and an equally unaware Doug has pointed her in the direction of Mulberry Cottage, having seen his friend go in there. As Brenda pushes the door open, 'Baurel' are getting down to business. Will she catch them in the act?

As Paddy wakes up with a hangover, he's awkward with his

Carters in crisis!

Aidan's drug-dealing in The Vic – but can the family stop him?

There's a drugs cartel operating out of The Vic... or should we say a drugs Carter-ell? See what we did there?

It's all thanks to Aidan, who's still hobbling about the Square blathering on about his missing money. He's convinced that Mick stole the loot – how else did he have the readies to buy back the pub? And, he wants to teach him that you don't go messing with JP...

Shirley was the first to clock the odd activity in the men's loos, and Mick twigged soon after that the trail of men going in and out of the bogs wasn't due to a dodgy ruby.

He's determined to nip things in the bud, but the drug dealer soon passes on a menacing message from his boss.

Not prepared to back down, Mick decides to speak to the organ grinder, directly – but the meeting doesn't go well.

'Mick gets a swift reminder of just what kind of man he's dealing with,' reveals our EastEnders insider. 'Aidan is a hardened criminal, who has lots of other criminals under his control. It's a David and Goliath situation. Mick tries to stand up to him, but Aidan gives him a threat that he can't ignore.'

Linda's been out of the loop so far, as she's been visiting her little sausage in Manchester. But when she returns, it doesn't take long for her to discover the truth, and she decides to take action. Perhaps she could do a spot of karaoke – that 'voice' of hers is enough to have the hardest types begging for mercy.

Mick's panic-stricken when he finds out what his missus has done, and comes to a bold decision, but it makes a bad situation 10 times worse, and all the Carters can do is stew over the possible repercussions. Have they just dug their own graves?

Park life:
Martin gets to know Hayley

Moving on

Martin meets up with Hayley – but what is her game?

Martin thinks he's found himself quite the fan in mysterious Hayley, and as she continues to flutter her eyelashes at him this week, he can't resist spending time with her. But there's clearly something a bit fishy about this Walford newcomer – when she first arrived in the Square three weeks ago, she was secretly spying on the Fowler family, and made more than a few disparaging remarks about the fruit and veg peddler, before she reported back to a mystery person on the phone. Could it be that she's not desperate to date him, but is in fact planning his downfall?

Martin, of course, is now single and free to mingle, following his and Stacey's split. The once loved-up couple have decided to sort things out amicably, without the need for legal action – or at least that's what Stacey believes. She's not so sure when she receives a letter from Martin's solicitor. He says it was sent in error, but is he telling the truth?

With a reunion looking less likely by the day, Martin decides to get to know Hayley better. He doesn't seem to want to take things slowly, judging by the fact that when they meet up, he takes baby Hope and little 'Arfur' with him. Stacey warns her estranged husband that he must bring the children home at the agreed time. But, swayed by Hayley's influence, he keeps them out for longer, and ignores Stacey's messages and calls.

with Martin

It's a decision that backfires on him, massively – but was that Hayley's plan all along? We can't help thinking that she's part of Stacey's secret mission to get custody of the kids. In fact, didn't show boss John Yorke say there was a new Slater coming to the Square? Just a thought...

PERIOD DRAMA ▶ How did seemingly good people come to support fascism and the Holocaust? Viggo Mortensen gives an excellent, low-key performance as a well-meaning literature professor who becomes drawn into the Nazi party to the dismay of his Jewish best friend and psychoanalyst, Jason Isaacs. The intelligent, subtle acting makes the most of this compelling, thought-provoking story. Although it was filmed in Budapest, the atmosphere of Berlin in the late 1930s is convincingly achieved without the sense of strain you get in some film reconstructions.

WEDNESDAY

Big Eyes

Film4 9.00pm - 11.10pm ★★★

PREMIERE BIOPIC ▶ Tim Burton tackles the stranger-than-fiction true tale of a scandalous 20th-century art fraud and turns it into an intriguing comedy-drama. The whopping peepers of the title refer to those kitsch paintings of saucer-eyed waifs that were derided by critics but wildly popular with the public in the 1950s and 60s. Slick-talking hustler Walter Keane, played with smarmy charm by Christoph Waltz, takes all the credit (and the brickbats), but the real artist is his timidly trusting, browbeaten wife, Margaret, convincingly played by Amy Adams. Burton's film is ravishing to look at – whether the same can be said of Margaret's art is entirely a matter of taste. Dir: Tim Burton 2014, 12, 130min

Saturday Highlights

Paddy's mixing it up tonight!

Take Me Out Special

● ENTERTAINMENT / 6.00pm / ITV

NEW To mark 10 years of Take Me Out, for the first time ever, host Paddy McGuinness is turning the dating show on its head and saying 'Bring on the boys!', as 30 male contestants from previous series return for another shot at finding The One. (The question is, will any of the boys turn their lights out?). Coming down the 'Love Lift' will be celebrity beauties Chloe Sims from The Only Way Is Essex and gold medal-winning gymnast Claudia Fragapane. The special will also feature past success stories, including Beckie and Adam from series eight, who married last year and are expecting their first baby; and Adele and Dave from series two, who are expecting baby number two. Aww... ★★★★★ VW

Which Mahrez will be showing up today?

LEICESTER CITY V STOKE CITY

Premier League

● FOOTBALL / 11.30am / Sky Sports Premier League/Mix

LIVE Leicester's Riyad Mahrez has the look of a man who really doesn't want to be there. Can the Foxes afford to carry such a player? It's a tough call, because Mahrez also has the ability to turn a game single-handedly. At least he should have fun today (k-o 12.30pm), as Leicester's opponents, Stoke, are struggling for form and are entangled in a bitter relegation scrap, with no tangible new-manager bounce from Paul Lambert. Will Leicester land another blow? ★★★ NP

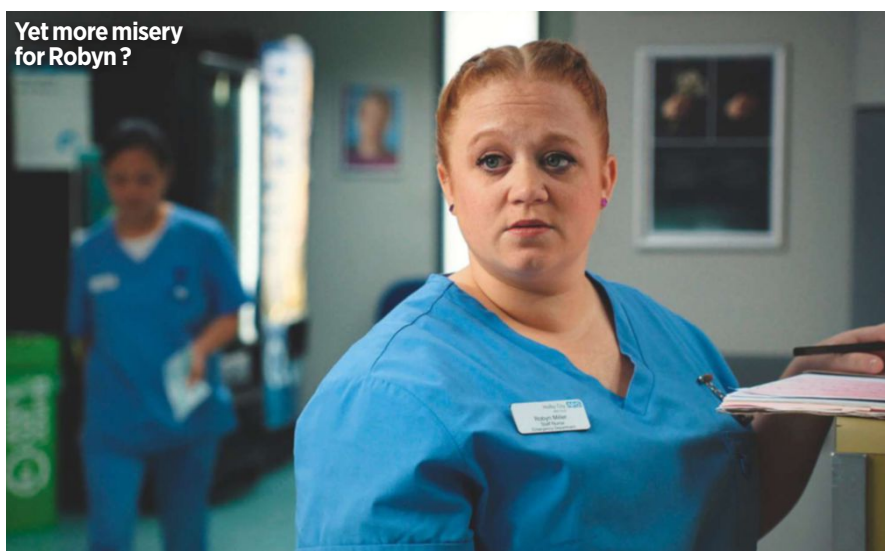

Idris Elba stars

The Take

● FILM / 9.00pm / C4

PREMIERE Lovers of original movie-making, this isn't the film for you. But if you're a fan of bone-breaking action, rubber-burning car chases and geezerishly quippy dialogue, it fits the bill. There's the added bonus of Idris Elba, neatly cast as a 'reckless and irresponsible' CIA agent trying to stop a bomb exploding in Paris on Bastille Day (the film's original title). Cheesy, stuffed-crust fun. ★★★ SM

Yet more misery for Robyn?

Casualty

● DRAMA / 8.20pm / BBC1

Nurse Robyn has certainly been through the wringer in recent years. First her fiancé, Glen, left her at the altar while she was pregnant. Months later, she nearly lost their baby girl, Charlotte, in childbirth. Then, last November, Glen made a shock return revealing that he had undergone risky life-saving brain surgery and wanted to make amends! This week poor Robyn is taken aback when Glen presents her with an engagement ring made out of foil paper and jokes, 'Hey babe, wanna get hitched?' Unsurprisingly she says no. Seriously, dude, Robyn nearly died in a graveyard giving birth to Charlotte. Up your game, sir! ★★★★★ ER

Who's watching Inger?

Modus

● DRAMA / from 9.00pm / BBC4

After last week's jaw-dropping cliffhanger, tonight's action-packed double bill gets cracking by raising our hopes that the kidnapped POTUS is about to be rescued. Meanwhile, Ingvar and Inger Johanne are still estranged after their terrible fight, and both are convinced that they are being watched. Then, a call from the jail offers hope of a breakthrough in the case... ★★★★★ EP

It's the kings of Saturday night!

Ant and Dec are back with more unpredictable capers

● ENTERTAINMENT / 7.00pm / ITV

NEW Our favourite Geordie duo, Ant and Dec, are back with more fun, games and hidden-camera antics as Saturday Night Takeaway returns. In the first show of the series, The Voice UK's newest coach, Olly Murs, takes the mic as Guest Announcer and Britain's Got Talent judge Amanda Holden falls victim of the first 'Undercover' of the series, as the boys wreak havoc during a shopping segment on QVC. Scarlett Moffatt is back to fill the 'Best Seats in the House' and Kylie Minogue will be performing her new single, as well as stepping back in time to sing some of her biggest hits in the End of the Show Show. Welcome back, lads, we've missed you! ★★★★★ VW

● Ant and Dec interview: see page 8

Will John Barclay lead the Thistle to victory today?

SCOTLAND V ENGLAND

Six Nations

● RUGBY UNION / 4.00pm / BBC1

LIVE Scotland host England at Murrayfield (k-o 4.45pm). England crushed the Scots 61-21 when the teams met last year at Twickenham, but Thistle captain John Barclay will also be aware that on their home turf they've been a different team. And with Greig Laidlaw in majestic form, who knows what fate will throw their way? On ITV, Ireland face Wales in Dublin (k-o 2.15pm) for what promises to be a proper humdinger. ★★★★★ NP

Paris and Helen's peace is about to be shattered

Troy: Fall of a City

● DRAMA / 9.10pm / BBC1

If a man steals another's wife these days, he could get named in a divorce case or even appear on The Jeremy Kyle Show. Back in Ancient Greece he'd cause a major war! Jonas Armstrong's King Menelaus is raging over young upstart Paris stealing his beloved wife, Helen, and starts massing armies to march on Troy, where Helen is living in sin. He calls upon three fearsome Greek warriors – his brother Agamemnon, Achilles and a very troubled Odysseus – to help him in his quest and, with mystical assistance from the gods, they soon end up on the shores of Troy where the first battle of an epic war begins. Be warned: brutal but spectacular fight scenes await. ★★★★★ NC

Barbara comforts the stricken Pearl

Call the Midwife

● DRAMA / 8.00pm / BBC1

Pregnant Northern Irish mum Pearl (Kelly Campbell) has come to Poplar to start a new life with her family away from strife back home, but her arrival seems utterly cursed by bad luck as first tragedy strikes and then the newsagent's shop she is running catches fire. Can the ever-plucky Phyllis save the day as she places herself in danger to go to the rescue?

Meanwhile, gung-ho Valerie, to the chagrin of her prudish pal Lucille, decides to run health classes for local teenage girls to teach them the basics of what she hilariously calls 'puberty, periods and pongs'. But she soon clashes with one youngster's over-protective mother and a difficult family history comes to light... ★★★★★ CC

● 'Valerie has a feminist streak': see page 19

Who'll take the Cup from holders Man Utd?

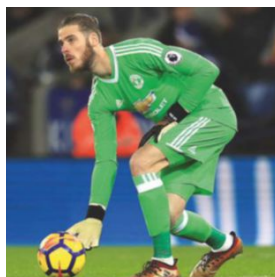

ARSENAL V MANCHESTER CITY

Carabao Cup Final

● FOOTBALL / 3.30pm / Sky Sports Football

LIVE The first major silverware of the season (k-o 4.30pm) will see whether Manchester City really are the best team of the moment and set to win everything in their path. Much will depend on which Arsenal turns up, of course, and they have shown on countless occasions that they can turn it on in a final – just ask Chelsea in last season's FA Cup – but the City juggernaut is a sight to behold. Whichever way it goes, this should be a cracking match for the neutral. ★★★★★ NP

Man U's David de Gea

Premier League

● FOOTBALL / 1.00pm / Sky Sports Premier League

LIVE This Man United-Chelsea clash (k-o 2.05pm) is a real six-pointer to ensure a top four position – and a chance to see two of the world's best goalies in action: David de Gea for United and Thibaut Courtois for Chelsea. United won 2-0 in this fixture last season, but under Antonio Conte, Chelsea have beaten José Mourinho's United three times... ★★★★★ NP

Will Edith smell an ulterior motive for Sandra's visit?

Hold the Sunset

● COMEDY / 7.30pm / BBC1

It's Edith's (Alison Steadman) 70th birthday – the perfect opportunity for Roger (Jason Watkins) and Phil (John Cleese) to continue their rivalry, outdoing each other with presents and bouquets. While the two of them make digs at each other in Roger's man shed, Edith's busy chatting to her daughter, Sandra (Joanna Scanlan). It turns out her birthday visit is just a subterfuge to ask for a loan, so how will she feel when she hears about Edith's plans to get married and sell the house? Meanwhile, Edith is horrified to discover who's coming to her birthday party – her eccentric former cleaner Mrs Gale, played to perfection by Anne Reid. ★★★★★ EB

Is Keane safe?

Homeland

● DRAMA / 9.00pm / C4

As the tension ramps up in true Homeland style, Carrie attempts to rescue the 200 intelligence officers imprisoned after President Keane's assassination attempt. Meanwhile, the president is being protected by her loyal chief of staff, Wellington (played by Linus Roache, son of Corrie legend William Roache), but how long before he wises up to her methods or he loses favour with his paranoid boss? ★★★★★ MC

Strike and Robin investigate a case with personal resonance

Strike

Strike and Robin return to tackle a gruesome murder

● DRAMA / 9.00pm / BBC1

NEW After a successful debut last year, Tom Burke and Holliday Grainger make a welcome return as shabby detective Cormoran Strike and his assistant Robin Ellacott for another challenging two-part case, Career of Evil. When a severed leg is delivered to Strike's office, the sleuths delve into their own traumatic pasts to discover who has a vendetta against them. After a girl's body is found, Strike looks into cases that haunted him both as a military policeman and as a child, and Robin's own university ordeal is brought to the fore. However, she's also trying to juggle the harrowing inquiry with preparing for her wedding to the frankly rather annoying Matthew! ★★★★★ cc

Hathaway and Shakespeare at your service!

Shakespeare & Hathaway

● DRAMA / 2.15pm / BBC1

NEW Jo Joyner and Mark Benton star in this new daytime weekday drama, brought together when Lu Shakespeare (Jo) asks private investigator Frank Hathaway (Mark) to find out if her fiancé is having an affair. In 72 hours Lu is set to marry Clive, a rich businessman, who seems far too good to be true – and of course he is. Frank discovers he's a conman with a chequered past of marrying women for their money and then disappearing. But with Lu already at the altar about to say 'I do', Frank needs to act fast... Jo and Mark make a great team and while there's nothing especially original about the series, it's light, bright and makes the most of its Stratford-upon-Avon locale. ★★★ JL

Can Marcella cope with catching a serial killer?

Marcella

● DRAMA / 9.00pm / ITV

Marcella is determined to find out why she is plagued with violent blackouts this week. Her therapist believes losing a baby to cot death might be the root of Marcella's problem, and encourages her to relive that terrible night... Meanwhile, the body of another boy has turned up, meaning the police are dealing with a serial child killer. When Marcella finds evidence linking convicted paedophile Phil Dawkins to the flat where young Leo's body was found, she takes him in for questioning... ★★★★★ SMA

What does Reggie know?

The X-Files

● DRAMA / 10.00pm / C5

Producer Darin Morgan, who won an Emmy for his writing on the show in season 4, is behind this week's self-referential and funny episode. A strange, sweaty man keeps turning up and muttering about a government conspiracy to alter the nation's collective memory – is he paranoid or onto something? Fans will find plenty to chuckle over in a story touching on everything from aliens to Donald Trump. ★★★★★ EP

Barrister Sasha is in search of the facts

Murder, Mystery & My Family

● REAL LIFE / 9.15am / BBC1

NEW In this daytime series, airing on weekdays, contentious historical crimes are re-examined to see if they would stand up to appeal in today's courts. Many convicts were sent to the gallows while protesting their innocence, including today's subject, Charlotte Bryant, who was hanged for poisoning her husband in 1936. Barristers Jeremy Dein and Sasha Wass, along with Charlotte's descendants, reopen the case. But as they investigate, the really sad story is learning how the Bryants' five young children coped with losing both parents in tragic circumstances. For Charlotte's son William it's an emotional journey... ★★★★★ MC

Mireille Enos and Greg Kinnear star

Electric Dreams

● DRAMA / 10.00pm / C4

● FOOD / 8.30pm / BBC1

Mary Berry's new six-part series is a little slice of food heaven. Here Mary revisits classic recipes and reboots her favourites, making them fantastically fuss-free. Part cookery programme, part reminiscence and part culinary adventure, this week's show sees Mary in the kitchen preparing mouth-watering Eggs Benedict Florentine and slow-cooked lamb shanks. There's also some singing as Mary recalls her Girl Guide training! And, is it just us, or does Mary have a cheeky flirt with Swedish chef Niklas Ekstedt when he introduces her to 'caveman cooking'? Playful, and jam-packed with helpful hints and tips – have a notebook and pen at the ready... ★★★★★ ER

Elsewhere, Kip Glaspie steps up her investigation when the body of pizza shop manager Laurie Stone is discovered... ★★★★★ SM

Looks awful,
come home
immediately!

Lyn's visit causes
a bit of a stir

Amazing Hotels: Life Beyond the Lobby

● DOCUMENTARY / 9.00pm / BBC2

NEW Food critic Giles Coren and chef Monica Galetti return to make us as green as an unripe coconut as they visit five of the world's most exclusive hotels. It takes an age to get to this week's hidden gem on a paradise atoll in the South Pacific – but it's worth it! Marlon Brando bought Tetiaroa in 1967 with a vision of a luxury eco-resort celebrating French Polynesia, and his dream became a reality when The Brando opened in 2014. Costing up to £11,000 a night, this isn't your average retreat. Let our lucky presenters show you around... ★★★★★ MC

Mum

● COMEDY / 10.00pm / BBC2

It's Easter, and with the house to herself Cathy is hoping to have a peaceful time clearing out the front room.

When Michael offers to help, it looks like the pair might finally get to spend some time together. Unfortunately, Jason and Kelly have got it into their (fairly tiny!) minds that Michael's a nuisance and interfere. Later, Cathy's old pal Lyn (Bad Girls and EastEnders' Kika Mirylees) pops round – and Pauline is furious to learn that Derek once had a bit of a 'thing' with her... ★★★★★ CC

Happy 101st, Jock!

100 Year Old Driving School

● REAL LIFE / 7.30pm / ITV

The second series following the more mature driver continues tonight. Biker Jock has just turned 101, but he's still loving life on the road! Robert, meanwhile, is 94 and still enduring the London traffic to drive to work, and John, 95, is taking his UK test after 30 years of driving in Spain. ★★ EP

Alan looks quite at home in Hardwick Hall!

Secrets of the National Trust

● DOCUMENTARY / 8.00pm / C5

NEW Alan Titchmarsh pokes around more properties looked after by the National Trust, starting with Hardwick Hall, a 16th-century Derbyshire mansion built by Countess of Shrewsbury Elizabeth Talbot, one of the most powerful women of the Elizabethan age. It's surprisingly modern-looking, thanks to all the glass – which was then a very expensive product – and Bess was so proud of her creation that she had huge stone initials put on the roof, so everybody knew who lived there. Alan also sends Jenni Bond down a copper mine to see where the money came from to pay for it all. ★★★ IM

● My National treasure: see page 21

Amar and Anna

How to Get Fit Fast

● HEALTH / 8.00pm / C4

NEW Is the rowing machine better than the treadmill? Can changing your cycling technique burn more calories and does the time of day you exercise make any difference? In a new three-parter, Anna Richardson and Amar Latif investigate the science and latest research to find the best way to get the most from your workout. ★★★ JL

100 Years Younger in 21 Days

A four-part series discovers if eight celebrities can turn back time...

● REAL LIFE / 9.00pm / ITV

NEW Few celebrities are happy about the ageing process, so now, eight very game famous faces aim to slow it down by taking part in a gruelling rejuvenation regime in Sardinia, where locals have a high life expectancy. After they all get sobering news about how their brain, body and face ages differ vastly from their real ages, they have to work to trim 100 years off their scores between them. Though some are soon led astray by booze, they also try some quirky cutting-edge treatments to reduce their wrinkles. The sight of June Brown having amorous snails crawl over her face and Roy Walker and Russell Grant getting coffee enemas will stay with us for a very long time! ★★★★★ CC

● June Brown and Claire King interview: see page 20

Tosh and Jimmy encounter some scary characters

Shetland

● DRAMA / times vary / BBC1

A lot of questions need answering in tonight's episode of Shetland. For starters, has Thomas Malone brutally killed former police informant Benny Ray? Who is Alan Killick's real father? And are both Alan and his mysterious father killers? Later, there's a dramatic change of pace when Sally's murder case leads Jimmy and Tosh to a sinister Norwegian far right group, who make the dour Donna look like Pollyanna. ★★★★★ ER

Over and out: Frances and Robert

Divorce

● DRAMA / 10.10pm / Sky Atlantic

NEW It's official – Robert and Frances are divorced. As this acerbic comedy-drama from Sharon Horgan begins its second series, the warring couple (Thomas Haden Church and Sarah Jessica Parker) finally sign on the dotted line and are left with a strangely anticlimactic feeling. Frances wants a fresh start, and Robert aims to get his act together for the kids – but it's not long before both projects hit a snag... ★★★★★ EP

ALSO ON...

Return to the Wild

● REAL LIFE / 10.00pm / C5

LAST ONE Ben Fogle revisits a former fighter pilot who lives a quiet life in the Himalayan foothills. ★★

The doomed designer with lover Antonio

Penélope Cruz as Donatella

Assassination of Gianni Versace

● DRAMA / 9.00pm / BBC2

NEW After The People v OJ Simpson, American Crime Story returns with another true-life series which looks like it's going to be every bit as addictive. Things kick off on the morning of 15 July 1997, when Gianni Versace, played by Edgar Ramírez – who looks uncannily like the fashion designer – was shot dead outside his mansion in Florida. The story then follows his murderer Andrew Cunanan (Glee's Darren Criss) – a serial killer who didn't know a lie from the truth – back in time, to when he first began stalking Versace, and then forwards to the police investigation after Versace's death. With co-stars including singer Ricky Martin, it's as glitzy as the wardrobe of Donatella (Penélope Cruz). ★★★★★ FW

Traumatised: Suranne Jones and Lennie James

Save Me

● DRAMA / 9.00pm / Sky Atlantic

NEW From the makers of Line of Duty comes this edgy six-part thriller, written by and starring Lennie James (who also starred in the cop drama's first series). He's 'Nelly' Rowe, whose life is turned upside down when he's accused of kidnapping his daughter, Jody. Nelly's arrest brings him back into contact with her mum (Doctor Foster's Suranne Jones). As Nelly tries to prove his innocence, will old feelings resurface? ★★★★★ VW
● Suranne Jones and Lennie James interview: see page 23

Nightmare for Andrew

Bliss

● COMEDY / 10.00pm / Sky One

Cheating Andrew (Stephen Mangan) thinks he's got his double life all worked out. But his worst nightmare comes true this week when he finds out that daughter Christina and son Kris socialise in the same circles, and – horror! – might be seeing each other. Andrew quizzes both teenagers, but the only thing he manages to find out is that his daughter is a pretty good liar... ★★★★★ VW

Art history: Amy Adams and Christoph Waltz

Big Eyes

● FILM / 9.00pm / Film4

PREMIERE A rare Tim Burton movie devoid of fantasy elements that proves what a decent director he really is. It's the true story of those kitschy 1960s paintings of kids with giant, doleful eyes, starring Amy Adams as the quiet, timid artist Margaret Keane who created them – and Christoph Waltz as her more gregarious husband, who took the credit for the paintings when they became popular. The performances are sharp and Burton's unflashy film-making allows the story to breathe. It's not as good as the director's other great biopic, Ed Wood, but it's a fine tale of how one woman fought back to claim her art. ★★★ NP

Viggo Mortensen stars

Good

● FILM / times vary / BBC1

When does going along with things for a quiet life become immoral? That's the question posed in this drama starring Viggo Mortensen as a 'good' professor finding himself increasingly drawn to the Nazi party in 1930s Berlin, to the growing horror of his Jewish best friend (Jason Isaacs). Jodie Whittaker, Steven Mackintosh and Mark Strong help make this a subtle though powerful drama. ★★★ SM

Nice day for a white wedding for Joyce

Wedding bells at the Solana as the sunny comedy returns

● COMEDY / 9.00pm / ITV

NEW Back for a special 10th series, Benidorm kicks off with a big day for one of its unlucky-in-love regulars. Solana manager Joyce Temple-Savage (Sherrie Hewson) is set to wed longtime admirer Monty (John Challis) in a beautiful, island-set ceremony, but after Monty makes a royal mess of things, will the blushing bride still say 'I do'? Poor Joyce is almost upstaged by bridesmaid Lesley (Tim Healy), too, and Mateo (Jake Canuso) delivers the most insulting Best Man's speech we've ever heard! Later in the series look out for a cameo from former Spandau Ballet singer Tony Hadley, and Nigel Havers as dodgy dentist Stanley Keen. An outrageously funny start. ★★★★★ RM

● Sun, sand and celebrations! See page 12

Benidorm

Teddy's owner is happy to see him again

The Supervet

● REAL LIFE / 8.00pm / C4

NEW The new series starts with a tiny Jackahuahua – a Jack Russell/Chihuahua cross – who was attacked by another dog while out walking in his local park. The pint-sized pup needs emergency spinal surgery but this is a tough case even for the magic hands of Noel. Also in Fitzpatrick Referrals is a gentle giant with a cyst on his elbow, which needs a tricky op to get the beautiful Bernese mountain dog back to his old self. ★★★★★ JL

Piers and Caroline visit homes you won't find on Zoopla!

The World's Most Extraordinary Homes

● REAL LIFE / 8.00pm / BBC2

NEW The urge to have a nose around other people's houses is so strong that another series of this property show was nailed after a single episode of series one. Caroline Quentin and architect Piers Taylor are back as our guides, and among this week's wows is a Portuguese house that merges into surrounding sand dunes. ★★★★★ SM

ALSO ON...

£1 Houses

● DOCUMENTARY / 9.00pm / C4

LAST ONE Problems abound as the Liverpool homeowners rush to complete their renovations in time for Christmas. ★★★★★

Film 2018

● ARTS / times vary / BBC1

NEW Clara Amfo returns with the BBC's flagship film review show, chatting to Oscar-nominated Lady Bird director Greta Gerwig. ★★★★★

Damned

● COMEDY / 10.00pm / C4

It's quite an eventful week for Nitin, who makes a shocking discovery about drunk parent Zak and then gets a fright at the office thanks to Nat. ★★★

Countdown, C4

Nick spoke to us about having fun in the hot seat since he began hosting the quiz in 2012...

'Countdown is a very skilled and regimented programme and I'm a freewheeling sort of person. During one round I spotted a good word and shouted out, "conifers!" It ruined the take but I was so pleased to have spotted it!'

Welcome aboard
the Star Princess

The Cruise: Voyage to Alaska

● DOCUMENTARY / 8.30pm / ITV (ex Wales)

NEW The Cruise has moved on since the days when Jane McDonald was singing on board the ship Galaxy. Tourists are no longer content with a few stopovers on Caribbean islands – they're now looking for a different experience, and the luxury liner Star Princess is catering to these new adventurers with a cruise to remote Alaska. As this three-parter begins, shore excursions agent Timothy and new teammate Karen take a trip together on a fishing boat, while Captain Tuvo navigates as close as he can to the six-mile wide Hubbard Glacier so that passengers can witness the 'calving' glacier season, when chunks of ice spectacularly shear off into the sea – cue My Heart Will Go On background music... ★★★ FW

Premier League

● FOOTBALL / 7.00pm / Sky Sports Premier League

LIVE In one of those bizarre twists of fate, the finalists in the Carabao Cup meet again four days later for a Premier League match (k-o 7.45pm). Will this game be a chance for the losers to get their own back? Arsenal's new signing Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang has shown hints of his pace and power, but will he get the kind of time he'll need to show off those attributes tonight? And could a partnership with other new boy Henrikh Mkhitaryan prove a profitable one? ★★★★★ NP

A chilling encounter for Piers as he meets Lorenzo Gilyard

Serial Killer with Piers Morgan

● DOCUMENTARY / 9.00pm / ITV

NEW Good Morning Britain host Piers Morgan re-enters the macabre world of American crime, and the interviewee in this week's film could be his most disturbing subject yet. Between 1977 and 1993, Lorenzo Gilyard went on a killing spree that claimed the lives of a dozen women, who he raped and strangled, before he disappeared without a trace. Missouri State Police feared they would never catch him, but advances in DNA profiling meant they finally caught the Kansas City Strangler in 2004. By that time Gilyard had a good job and was happily married, while hiding his terrible secret. ★★★★★ SMA

The Job Interview

● REAL LIFE / 10.00pm / C4

Hotel chain Hilton needs a conference chief. The letters in Hilton – which sum up the qualities they're after – stand for Hospitality, Integrity, Leadership, Teamwork, Ownership and Now – of course! Also, dress firm Chi Chi London need a designer. As well as presenting three designs, candidates must sketch an embroidered Bardot dress – easy! ★★★★★ JL

Civilisations

Simon Schama presents the first in an epic new series on the history of art

● DOCUMENTARY / 9.00pm / BBC2

NEW Even before the opening credits of this nine-part series begin, this first episode – entitled The Second Moment of Creation – proves just how important monuments and antiquities are to us by detailing the death of archaeologist Khaled al-Asaad, who was beheaded by ISIS for trying to save the ancient city of Palmyra from destruction. Simon Schama then takes us on an incredible journey of world civilisations through art, going back as far as cave drawings from the Ice Age and showing how they influenced modern painters like Picasso. So sit back and enjoy this armchair view of art and culture that surpasses any trip to a museum or gallery. ★★★★★ FW

Jeff Daniels as an FBI counter-terrorism chief

The Looming Tower

● DRAMA / Amazon Prime Video

NEW Jeff Daniels, Tahar Rahim, Alec Baldwin and Peter Sarsgaard head a weighty cast in this 10-part adaptation of Lawrence Wright's book about the bitter rivalry between the FBI and CIA. It was this rivalry – Wright suggests – that gave Osama Bin Laden the wiggle room to stage his attacks on the World Trade Center in 2001. An important subject gets a dramatic and thrilling treatment. New episodes are released weekly. ★★★★★ SM

Feeling guilty, Olivia?

Scandal

● DRAMA / 10.00pm / Sky Living

NEW After a jaw-dropping cliffhanger brought the first half of this final season to a close, it's a shame that the fate of fan favourite Quinn is dealt with so bizarrely as the story picks up again tonight. While Olivia struggles to cope, the unlucky in love Cyrus is heartbroken when the excellently named Fenton Glackland (Breaking Bad's Dean Norris) tells him it's over. How much can one man's heart take? ★★★ EP

This family is a nightmare

Monster Family

● FILM / 7.00pm / Sky Cinema Premiere

PREMIERE Sky have high hopes for this animated comedy, which launches Sky Cinema Original Films, a venture that sees new movies getting a TV premiere the same day they debut on the big screen. Future titles include sci-fi thriller Anon, starring Clive Owen and Amanda Seyfried, and they've also gone for star clout in this curtain-raiser, with

Emily Watson, Nick Frost, Jessica Brown Findlay and Ethan Rouse as the voices of the Wishbones, a family changed into monsters by witch Baba Yaga (Catherine Tate) at the bidding of a lovestruck Count Dracula (Jason Isaacs). It's fun family entertainment that stays largely in its own comfort zone, though the animators clearly have talent to burn. ★★★ SM

Jo Brand, live in 1995

Jo Brand: Secrets of Her Success

● DOCUMENTARY / 10.30pm / C5

NEW Jo Brand's bold and self-deprecating sense of humour comes under the spotlight in this documentary. It goes right back to the 1980s, when she started out on the circuit as 'The Sea Monster'. Jo went on to win Stand Up of the Year in 1995, then write and star in sitcoms Getting On, for which she won a BAFTA, and Damned. Is there no end to her talents? ★★★★★ MC

The Yorkshire Steam Railway

● DOCUMENTARY / 8.00pm / C5

NEW If you're a fan of The Railway Children or Harry Potter's train ride to Hogwarts, then this is the show for you – it has nostalgia, happy passengers dressed for the steam age and stunning views of the North York moors. The series goes behind the less-than-glamorous scenes as the company running 18 miles of track battles to make a living, and the first episode has the manager hiring an iconic 90-year-old Royal Scot to promote the season's opening. While the trains are crowd pleasers, it's the staff who are the stars of this show, including Piglet the straight-talking engineer and 82-year-old ticket inspector Berty Blower. ★★★★★ FW

John and Gregg tuck in

MasterChef

● FOOD / 7.30pm / BBC1

The tension mounts in the first quarter final as six heat winners compete for two places in Knockout Week. To win through they need to rise to the challenge set in the Critics Test by food writer William Sitwell – a delectable dessert laced with spice or alcohol. Pud-loving Gregg will be in heaven, of course, but John and William might be slightly harder to please. ★★★ SM

Jane's going up
the Mississippi

The adventurous singer ends the series on a high note

● TRAVEL / 9.00pm / C5

LAST ONE For the last episode of the series our irrepressible guide goes back to an era in which she feels very comfortable! Jane is cruising the Mississippi on the world's largest steamboat, American Queen, which drips with antiques and old-style glamour. Jane even has her own personal butler! But this cruise isn't all about luxury. Jane takes a trip to Oak Alley Plantation and while imagining herself as an extra in Gone with the Wind, she also learns about its dark past when plantations owed their huge wealth to slave labour. She also visits the Louisiana State Penitentiary, and finally ends her adventure with a trip to Graceland, the home of, and now shrine to, Elvis Presley – uh huh huh! ★★★★★ JL

Matilda's titular bookworm gets comfy

From Page to Screen

● FILM / from 6.40am / Sky Cinema Drama/Family

After the buzz of yesterday's World Book Day, Sky keeps the vibe alive with some Oscar-winning novel-to-big-screen adaptations, including Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird, Truman Capote's Breakfast at Tiffany's and Forrest Gump, based on Winston Groom's 1986 novel, all on Sky Cinema Drama today. Over on Sky Cinema Family, younger viewers might like Coraline, the Roald Dahl comedy Matilda and Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children. ★★★★★ MC

It's all got too much for Aron

Requiem

● DRAMA / 9.00pm / BBC1

With all the weirdness and misery in Penllynith, it's no wonder everybody is at breaking point. While Aron takes his anger out on lovely Hal, Nick is desperate to leave town and Matilda is growing increasingly disturbed and visits psychiatrist Verity (Pippa Haywood) for help. Matilda gets a fresh lead, however, when she encounters troubled local Laura (Anastasia Hille), who claims that a strange voice gave her information about Carys. ★★★★★ CC

● REAL LIFE / 9.00pm / C4

AT LAST! an Android tablet for beginners

AT LOWEST EVER PRICE – JUST £99.95***

IF YOU feel technology is leaving you behind and you don't know your iPad from your elbow; Twitter is something that birds do; and Facebook means looking at a book to read, then you are probably one of hundreds of thousands who feel isolated from the outside world, with everyone speaking a strange new language.

NOT being a part of this new technology can leave people feeling left behind and lonely; perhaps you acknowledge that you should know what to do with an android tablet but not really knowing where to begin.

Welcome to the 21st century

Age should not be a barrier to learning something new. And learning to use an android tablet could help improve memory while at the same time bringing you into the twenty first century; allowing you to keep in touch with family and friends near and far.

Staying in touch

Technology can be of great benefit to people of all ages, especially older generations as a means of keeping in touch or with online shopping if getting out of the house is becoming more difficult. Perhaps getting to the library is no longer an option, with an android tablet you have a whole world of books, newspapers and magazines at your fingertips.

The world at your fingertips

You can break into this new technology with an Android Tablet from Portfolio. From browsing the web and online shopping to keeping up with friends and family on Facebook, Twitter and Skype – the digital world is at your fingertips with this simple-to-use tablet. And we will show you what to do and how to do it.

Social Networking Explained

Twitter is an online social networking service that enables users to send and read short messages known as 'tweets'. Facebook is another social networking site that allows users to post photographs and events that are happening in their lives to keep up with friends and family around the world. Skype allows you to talk to and see at the same time friends and family who also have Skype – like a telephone with live pictures. And if you order our book 'One Step at a Time', this will explain how WiFi works and help get you connected so that you can 'surf' the great world wide web (or internet as it's usually known).

Never miss out

The NEW Portfolio 16GB Tablet lets you catch-up on your favourite TV programmes through BBC iPlayer, ITV Hub, All4 (Channel 4 and associated channels). It is pre-loaded with the following apps to keep you up to date and entertained:- BBC iPlayer, ITV Hub, All Four, Demand 5, BBC iPlayer Radio, BBC Sport, Mailonline, Sky News; and games - Crossword, Solitaire, Sudoku, Scrabble; keep in touch with loved ones through Skype and Gmail. You can download films and music through Playstore, and with the Amazon Kindle app it will transform the tablet into a library of books for your complete enjoyment.

Take it anywhere

The compact design means you can take the Portfolio Tablet with you wherever you go – play a game at home, read the latest news 'on the go'. And with two cameras – one on the front for Skype, self-photographs (selfies) and recordings, and one on the back – you can take photographs and video recordings wherever you are.

Millions of apps

It's so easy to create an account to gain access to millions of free and paid for apps – including news and weather, social media, eBook, games and more, and we show you how.

Plenty of storage

Each Tablet can store vast quantities of music, films, books and data, and while the Portfolio Tablet has a storage memory of 16GB, this can be increased and we recommend investing in our ULTIMA PRO HIGH SPEED Storage Card – available in two sizes – 16GB, which increase storage capacity to 32GB or 32GB card, increasing the storage capacity to 48GB.

Incredible size and speed

The big 10.1" touch screen has 1024 x 600 resolution for clarity, and with a host of features that could make life feel a little better and less complicated. Bluetooth allows connection to speakers and other Bluetooth wireless devices; GPS allows you to plan a route to any destination you require; FM radio allowing you to listen to all your favourite programmes; fast quad core processor allows for quicker downloading of apps and information; 5000mAh battery power for longer life between re-charges and it comes complete with an AC power cable and easy-to-follow operating instructions.

Save on household bills too

Now you can impress your children and grandchildren with your knowledge of the internet. And you can easily cut your household bills by using comparison websites to reduce car and home insurance, energy bills and even your shopping bills can be cut by comparing prices across your favourite supermarkets.

Keyboard Wallet with Stand

While the Portfolio Tablet has a touch screen, which brings up a keyboard allowing you to type emails, etc., they also offer a Keyboard Wallet which turns the Tablet into a Notebook. With a fully-functioning QWERTY keyboard, the integral USB cable connects to the Tablet making typing of emails, internet searches and word processing more convenient. The built-in stand allows for easy viewing of TV and films, and typing.

Eerie atmosphere

BBC1's new psychological thriller Requiem reminds me of classic Rosemary's Baby and similar films in that genre. The unnerving soundtrack creates an eerie atmosphere with a mounting sense of dread, which keeps me mentally on my toes. Intense and creepy, the opening episode set the pace for an absorbing ghost story.

Angela Garvin, Essex

Go, Michael!

I'm really enjoying the current series of Great American Railroad Journeys. I particularly enjoyed the episode where Michael Portillo visited Toronto. It ignited some

LETTER OF THE WEEK

Very moving

Moving On has triumphed again, delivering a top notch run of dramas. With a formidably talented cast and superb writing, every story I've seen has been a winner. Jodhi May put in a particularly moving performance of an abuse victim, eventually coming to terms with her troubled past. At times haunting, but always engaging.

Pete Simon, Warwickshire

Top cast: Shaun Williamson and Sally Lindsay. Inset: Jodhi May childhood memories, such as going up the CN Tower and travelling on the GO train to Union Station.

Jessica Bates, Hampshire

Royal link

Elizabeth: Our Queen is most welcome viewing. Her Majesty and myself share the same year of birth and I feel proud to have lived through her reign of over 60 years. I must compliment Channel 5 on a most interesting presentation.

Alan Andrews, Devon

Truly delightful

Celebrity 5 Go Barging is truly delightful viewing. Watching the participants try to cope with cramped conditions on France's waterways is TV gold. Tessa Sanderson stands out from the bunch and I look forward to more.

Natasha Russell-Carr, West Yorkshire

Better than ever

Endeavour is better than ever. The tantalising storylines involving murder, suspense and intrigue have really set the standard for British TV drama. It is a fitting tribute to Morse creator, the late Colin Dexter.

TV TURN OFF

Girlfriends

May I say how disappointed I was with Girlfriends. The first episode was brilliant. However, each week it went down in my estimation, and became very far-fetched. I feel the six hours I invested in it was a waste of time.
